

Flex-Time Program

Degree Type

Doctor of Jurisprudence

The School of Law's flex-time program is designed for students who wish to pursue a legal education while maintaining full-time or part-time employment and/or attending to significant family obligations. Flex-time students may take no fewer than six and no more than twelve credits in any fall or spring semester. They typically take nine to twelve credit hours in any given fall or spring semester and are expected to complete all program requirements within four to six years. The course of study for the J.D. program must be completed within 84 months (seven years), in accordance with ABA Standard 311(b).
